

---

Dear Ron,

I wanted to thank you for treating my dad. He is a difficult patient to treat because of his health problems but you managed him wonderfully; he has nothing but praise for you both personally & professionally and I most heartily concur.

Thanks for all your help over this last quarter century and I look forward to many more years of our professional relationship together.

Ray